

horizon kate SPAIN

Looking toward the wide expanse of the horizon is such a tranquil thing to me. I've lived close to the water for much of my life. One of my favorite things to do in any season is to stroll along the shoreline and to look for treasures left behind from outgoing tides. The color palette for Horizon was inspired by bits of beautiful, luminous sea glass I've collected over the years— in hues of bright green, ocean blue, turquoise, and brilliant cobalt. These soothing colors intersect harmoniously with the textural designs created from woodblocks that I hand-carved. I hope this collection inspires you to venture to the distant shores of your imagination and to expand your creative horizons!
