

It's Elementary

American Jane

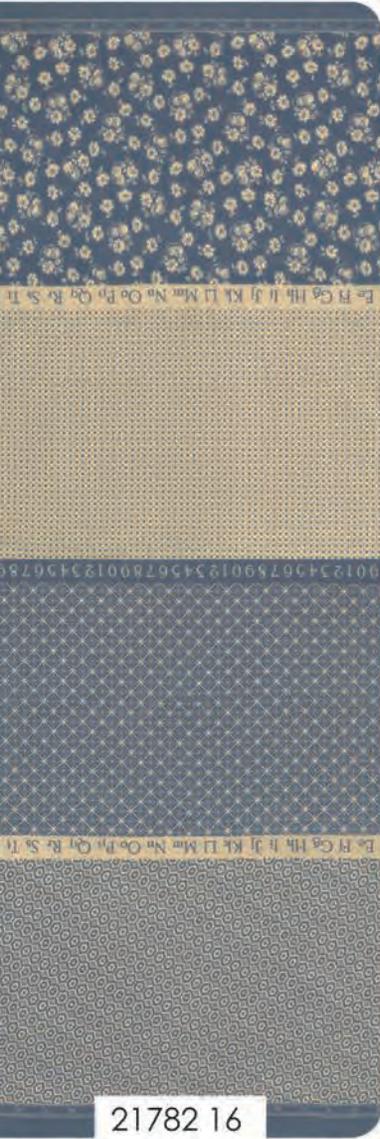

I just love watching little kids play. They run, jump, squeal, giggle and laugh with boundless energy! They enjoy every moment, innocent and free from adult worries and stress. It's how I feel when I sew with my quilting buddies, or even by myself. We might not run or jump as much as we used to but the rest is true – there is always plenty of laughing and giggling.

It's Elementary is full of fun for both kids and quilters. There is a panel with kids playing, and a panel with an alphabet so you can spell the words that make you happy. These charming flowers, bubbles and pin dots will have me running to my studio to sew and play.
