Good things take time.

If you love scrap quilts as much as I do, my latest collection should be to your liking.

Rose has a beautiful array of prints in my favorite shades of blue, brown, red, pink and toast. The prints range from must-have blenders to a spectacular small-scale double-flower that undulates across the fabric. I particularly love this print, and can't wait to sew with it.

The collection includes a few soft, mid-range colored prints that soften the collection. Rose works beautifully on it's own, and mixed from fabrics from Hopewell, Lancaster and Yesterday. When it comes to making scrap quilts, "the more, the merrier" is my mantra.
